

Daviess County COVID-19 Oral History Self-Interview

What is your name, how old are you, and where do you live?

What is the date today that you are recording this interview?

Can you describe briefly the current world situation which has precipitated this interview?

Was there a moment in time when you realized the seriousness of this situation? Where were you and how did it make you feel?

What changes have taken place in your community and your personal life as a result?

How do you feel about this situation and how it is affecting you? Has that changed since it began?

How do you perceive that others around you feel about it?

How has your daily life changed? Are you making active changes as a response to the event?

How do you feel about official government responses to the event on a national, state, or local level?

Has this event changed the way you perceive your own life or your relationship to others in any way? Do you think you will see life in a different way after it is over?

If you had a chance to tell a curious student in the far future one thing about this event, what would it be?

By submitting all or part of this written interview to the Daviess County Historical Society, Inc (DCHS), I, the above-named, agree to transfer all right, title, and interest, including intellectual property and copyright interest, of these responses to the DCHS. These materials will be stored in accordance with the DCHS collections policy and may be reproduced and disseminated by the DCHS, including use in publicly-available media and other materials, as it sees fit to fulfill its educational and scholarly mission now and in the future.
